MAYOR JERRY DYER UNVEILS 2026 STATE OF THE CITY HONOREES: FRESNO'S BIGGEST CIVIC EVENT RETURNS MAY 6 — TICKETS NOW ON SALE

APRIL 23, 2026, FRESNO, CA — One Stage. One Message. One Fresno.

On May 6, Mayor Dyer will deliver his annual State of the City address—offering a comprehensive look at where Fresno stands and where it's headed. "Fresno is under construction—in the best way possible," said Mayor Dyer. "What we're building today will define our future."

Mayor Jerry Dyer has announced the 2026 State of the City award recipients, spotlighting the individuals helping shape Fresno's future. The honorees will be recognized at the State of the City Luncheon at the Fresno Convention & Entertainment Center.

This Year's Honorees

- Housing Hero Award — Ted Moon
- Beautify Fresno Award — Chuck Kroeger & Robin Kroeger
- Downtown Champion Award — Dora Westerlund
- Key to the City — Mary Curry

The individuals being recognized represent the heart of Fresno- the people who show up, step up, and make a difference.

"These honorees are helping build Fresno every day through leadership, service, and commitment to community. Mary Curry's legacy stands out as a powerful example of what it means to give back in a way that shapes a city for generations. It is a privilege to recognize her with the Key to the City," said Mayor Dyer.
